From The President

Our club has the only pool party where not only does no one go in the pool, but no one even brings a bathing suit. We do have a great time staring from the shade of Janet Stevenson's patio at her beautiful pool. We also barbeque hamburgers and hot dogs; and of course, make s'mores for dessert. The bottom line is that we had a great time... and Thank You Janet for your hospitality.

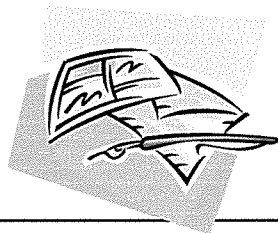

I still want to keep reminding you about going to the Magic Castle for our Christmas party this year. This is an adult's only function that will be held on Sunday evening, December 5th. It is a private venue that we are lucky to be able to get in. If you have heard about the castle and always wanted to go, this is your chance. Keep looking in the newsletter for more details.

We are getting closer and closer to our Fall Horse Show at Santa Barbara over Labor Day weekend. It is an opportunity to see some amazing performance horses and have a great time at a beautiful place. Our sponsor box in the newsletter is starting to fill up. Don't miss your chance to see your name there. Sponsor a class for your club's show. The premium is available for viewing on our website.

Our next general meeting will be our Show Wrap up meeting in the fall. Everyone is invited. We do have a board meeting and talk about how the show did. Most of the meeting, however, is purely social with eating, drinking, and having a good time talking with old friends and hopefully some new ones.

Hope to see you at our last two meetings of the year.

Sincerely,
Mary Ann Hughes

Fall Show Updates

Congratulations !!! to Rob & Pam Hess who will be celebrating their 1000th show at our AHASC Fall show. This is also the 35th year that they have been our horse show photographers. Rob has been a life member of AHASC for 34 years.

Please join us to celebrate. We will be serving cake in their honor on Friday after the afternoon session.
